

LIFENABLED

2019

Annual Report

68 Patients

23 Volunteers

6 Guatemalan National Volunteers

Article on LifeNabled, by Fast Company, discussing accessible prosthetics in remote locations.

(link on website)

Over $63,000 in Donor Giving

Articles on LifeNabled from 3dprint.com and 3dheals.com regarding the role of 3D printing in prosthetic care.

(links on website)

Partnership with Open Gait Prosthetics

- Collaboration on the development of modular socket
- 3 Open Gait owners volunteered at the August clinic to collect additional data for socket development

$57.50 in Amazon Smile
Donations

Over $11,000 generated from DigiScan 3D subscribers.

Progress on 3D-printed pediatric foot.

- Currently in testing phase.
- This foot is specially designed to withstand the demands of the developing world

Major software update completed to allow compatibility with new scanning devices.

Collaboration with Victoria Hand Project for one of our upper extremity patients.

(photo above)

